

5.24-1964

St. James Exercises Set Today

Dr. Charles Hatfield, chairman of the University of North Dakota department of mathematics, will address St. James High School seniors at commencement exercises at the school at 3 p.m. today.

The class of 110 graduates will be presented by Rev. Stephen Dickinson, principal. Timothy Lane is valedictorian and Kevin Kuklok and Alan Larivee are co-salutatorians.

The St. James Glee Club will participate.

Baccalaureate services were scheduled at 9 a.m. today, to be followed by breakfast.

At an earlier awards program, Lane received the Exchange Club athletic honor and a scholarship to St. John's University, Collegeville, Minn. Cynthia Hauser and Laverne Brandon received scholarships to College of St. Catherine's, St. Paul; Duane Cariveau to Rockhurst College, Kansas City, Mo., and Alan Larivee an honorary scholarship to the University of North Dakota from Northern States Power Co.

Gloria Birkholz was given the J.F.T. O'Connor scholarship to the University of North Dakota. Other winners were Thomas Lynch, athletic scholarship from Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Richmond; Beth Saumur, Catholic Daughter junior English award.

Jeanne Harrie, James Dawson science award; Larivee, Bausch and Lomb science award; Robert Skaar and Judy Fulcher, Bud Butler award for excellence in religion and Kuklok, Lynstad's Inc., scholarship.

The "Dollars for Scholars" recipients were John Wavra, David Risky, Elizabeth Plattes, Thomas Keogh, Francis Feist, Ronda Sabe and Cariveau.

National Honor Society members were Gloria Birkholz, Laverne Brandon, Duane Cariveau, Shirley Dufault, Francis Feist, Cynthia Hauser, Linda Kenney, Kevin Kuklok, Timothy Lane, Alan Larivee, Elizabeth Plattes, Mary Pat Rerick, David Risky, Ronda Sabe, Antoinette Scholand and Robert Skaar.